

Evokeup Growth Agency

A Complete App Marketing Agency

GRAPHIC DESIGNER REQUIREMENT

September 04, 2019

What makes the Evokeup Agency team awesome?

- We love market intelligence! At Evokeup Agency you have the opportunity to work with growing mobile apps and games across verticals and help them integrate a solution that has the power to have a huge impact on their business!
- As part of our creative team you will work alongside the industry's top talent where you will have the chance to not only learn but also grow professionally.
- Work at the forefront of B2B platforms - where the product is constantly evolving and getting better and better with each new iteration.
- You get to have a direct impact on the success of the mobile apps and games by strategically helping clients.

What will I bring to the team?

- 100s of top publishers of mobile apps and games rely and trust on our services. As a graphic designer at Evokeup you have to adopt yourself in our hunger for excellence.
- You have to creatively create powerful graphics including but not limited to app icons, app screenshots, promotional banners, advertisement graphic, social media posts, logos, mockups, and web and app prototypes.
- We firmly believe in exceeding limits and forcing exceptional results, so sometimes(if not often) you have to say goodbye to your comfort zone.
- Sometimes if we've overloaded projects then our content writers, product managers and ASO managers will also show their hidden creativity of graphic designers:) . So being self-driven, positive attitude and having control on inner thoughts is obvious for this position.
